Why did my state receive this grade? Washington has elements that are friendly to prevention but should take further action to make prevention education viably accessible to youth.

Who does this exploitation and trafficking impact? Each year millions of children are victims of trafficking and commercial sexual exploitation, affecting communities small and large. This happens all over the world, including in your own community.

How does this happen? Children are most often exploited by an acquaintance (significant other, friend, family member, etc.). They are targeted, groomed, tricked, and manipulated.

WASHINGTON BY NUMBERS:

- 500 calls to the human trafficking hotline.
- 163 human trafficking cases reported.
- 36 cases concerned a minor.
- 131 cases involved females, 20 involved males, <3 involved gender minorities.

EXPLOITATION BY NUMBERS

• Approximately 1.6 million children run away every year in the United States.\(^2\)

• Of the nearly 27,000 runaways reported to NCMEC in 2017, one in 7 were likely victims of child sex trafficking.\(^3\)

• There were 8,524 human trafficking cases reported in the United States in 2017 and 32% of those cases involved a minor.\(^4\)

• In 2017, 88% of trafficked children were in the care of social services at the time the exploitation began.\(^5\)

RECOMMENDED STEPS AND LEGISLATIVE ACTIONS

TASK FORCE

• Amend state task force to include a focus on the prevention of child exploitation and trafficking.

STATE DEFINITION OF CHILD ABUSE

• Amend state statute defining child abuse to include trafficking.

PREVENTION EDUCATION CURRICULUM

• Mandate child exploitation prevention curriculum in all state public schools for all grade levels.

• Identify within the curriculum the need to educate youth with age appropriate curriculum on child exploitation, child trafficking, and child abuse.
