

Recognize & Respond to Human Trafficking

Learn Skills That Save Lives!

As a healthcare professional, you are in a critical position to recognize and respond to victims of human trafficking. Join iEmpathize, an international human rights nonprofit to learn how to:

Identify
red flags

Respond
with empathy

Disrupt
human trafficking and child exploitation

Why Healthcare Matters

By understanding the complex dynamics of trafficking and learning best practices for compassionate intervention, healthcare professionals can help break the cycle of exploitation and offer survivors a pathway to healing and recovery.

Designed For Easy Use

Our free media based training program is designed to equip registered nurses, advanced practice nurses, physicians, and physician assistants with the specialized knowledge needed to recognize red flags, provide trauma-informed medical forensic care, specialized knowledge in injury identification, and connecting patients with critical resources.

Our Impact So Far

From emergency room visits to routine check-ups, trafficked individuals may seek medical care multiple times while in exploitation. This training empowers providers to become proactive forces in prevention and intervention.
